What kind of insurance is this?

The Personal Accident Insurance is a voluntary personal and property insurance covering the consequences of accidents suffered by the driver and passengers of motor vehicles with regard to the consequences of accidents related to the use of motor vehicles – Section II, group 1 of the Annex to the Insurance and Reinsurance Activity Act.

What does the insurance cover?

- ✓ The subject matter of the insurance cover are permanent and long-lasting consequences of accidents related to the use of the motor vehicle insured, and:
  - while getting in and out of the motor vehicle,
  - while inside the vehicle at the time when the vehicle stops or at the time of its stopover during a trip,
  - while the motor vehicle is repaired during a trip,
  - while the motor vehicle or its trailer is being loaded or unloaded.
- ✓ The insurance also includes insurance cover for permanent consequences of a cardiac arrest or cerebral hemorrhage suffered by the driver while the motor vehicle is in motion.
- ✓ The following insurance benefits are provided under the insurance:
  - payment for a permanent or long-lasting health detriment caused by an accident, where the amount payable by the insurer in the event that the insured has sustained a 100% permanent health detriment is the full sum insured, and the amount payable by the insurer in the event of a partial health detriment is an agreed-on percentage of the sum insured corresponding to the health detriment sustained by the insured,
  - payment for death caused by an accident or an incident covered under the insurance agreement – 100% of the sum insured,
  - reimbursement of the cost of a one-off purchase of prostheses and aids in the territory of Poland – up to 10% of the sum insured,
  - reimbursement of the cost of vocational retraining of disabled persons incurred in the territory of Poland – up to 10% of the sum insured,
  - reimbursement of the cost of treatment of the consequences of an accident or an insured event under the insurance agreement – up to 10% of the sum insured,
  - in the event of death outside Poland as a result of an accident or an insured event under the insurance agreement – reimbursement of the documented cost of repatriation of the body from the place of death to the place of burial in the territory of Poland – up to 50% of the sum insured, payable regardless of the benefit described above.
- ✓ Regardless of the benefits payable under the insurance agreement, the insurer reimburses to the insured the necessary documented expenses incurred for domestic trips to physicians specified by the insurer, or to a hospital for clinical observation, the cost of medical checkups prescribed by a physician specified by the insurer, which are necessary as a justification for any claims submitted. Such reimbursements are of additional nature with regard to the limits of the sum insured.

What is not covered by the insurance?

- ✗ No insurance cover is provided under the insurance agreement for occupational or tropical diseases or any diseases or medical conditions of the insured, including ones of sudden nature, with the reservation of cases expressly indicated in the description of the subject matter of insurance.
- ✗ No liability is assumed by the insurer for pain or any physical or moral suffering or any material injury which consist in damage to or loss or destruction of any property.

What are the limitations of the insurance cover?

Under the Personal Accident Insurance, we assume no liability, inter alia, for permanent consequences caused under the following circumstances:
